FOOTBALL

The football team had a dream season this year with an incredible record of 8-3. The nine seniors including both captains, all-star runningback Dave Vincent and rough tough Kevin Goulet. They along with the rest of the unselfish team, won their way to the best season Grafton has had since 1999.

The Indians season ended in heartbreak as they played in the Turkey Bowl against undefeated rival Millbury. The entire team came to play that day, but were beat due to intense preparation by the Millbury team.

Even with the loss to Millbury at the end of the season, all the players look back on the season with awe. Overcoming several games that no one gave them a shot in.

They football team is still in tact, only losing 9 seniors. Mike Lane and Tyler Connelly have been chosen to lead next year's team to victory. Go 11-0 next year!!!

Ice Hockey

The Grafton Indians Ice Hockey Team ended their season with a record (0-18-2), which is worse than the previous season (1-19-0). Even though the team didn't win any games, they were able to muster up some incredibly close games.

The team had good chemistry, but had trouble putting the puck in the net when it counted. They were only a young team with only 8 upper classmen (juniors & seniors).

Even though their record placed the team in last place, their play earned two players all-star titles. Both Senior Capt. Ken McClure and Senior Capt. Tony Piscillo were chosen Roy Conference All-stars, and Ken was chosen as a Central Mass. all-star.

The team has high hopes for next year with the return of all but five of their players. Better luck next year Ice Hockey!!!

GRADUATION

"SIMILAR TO OPENING DAY FOR THE RED SOX"

Our Valedictorian, Jeff Vandenengel spoke about our futures. He gave the analogy that graduation day was like opening day for baseball, the Red Sox in particular. When everything is exciting and hopes for winning the world series still exists. This is why today is our opening day and each is working toward his/her personal world series.

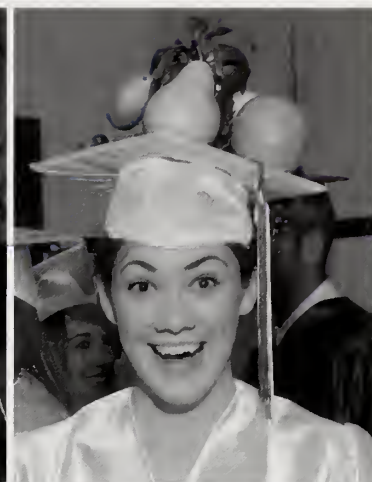

Jackie Cadrin,
Salutatorian,
and
Joe Frey,
Honor Speaker.

Above, Jamie Borelli, secretary, and Michael Oliveri, treasurer, announce the class gift.

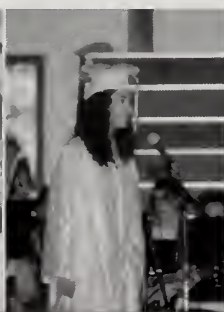

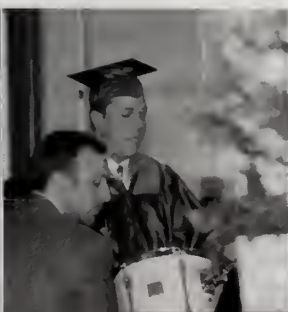

Right, Class President Andrew Clark receives his diploma and prepares to call his classmates for theirs.

June 4, 2004

- We marched in wearing our caps and gowns, and stood together with our classmates one final time.
- We received advice, more advice, scholarships, awards and of course our diplomas. We thanked our class advisors, Mr. Underwood and Ms. Hopp.
- We met some members of the class of 1944 where they introduced their establishment of an Alumni Fund.
- We were entertained by musical selections "For Good" sung by Emily Goodwin, and "Goodbye Sky Harbor" performed by Gina Simonelli, Alex Rossiter, Nate Kralian and Dave Crepeault.

Daniel J Abril

Congratulations Dan! You made it (and we all survived) and we are so very proud of you. These 18 years have gone by more quickly than we could have ever imagined. You've brought so much joy into our lives and made us smile more times than we can count. Love always, Mom, Dad and Jess

Mike, look at you on the first day of first grade. You were so excited and not the least bit scared of the new experience or at least you didn't show it. Time sure has flown by. Watching you grow and develop into a wonderful, bright and responsible young man sure has been a very fulfilling rewarding experience as your mom. You have always made me so proud of you. You have lots of drive and ambition that will get you far, but always remember in your journey to be true to oneself...Love Mom

Congratulations Emily and our Friends of The Class Of 2004. As we pass through this crossroads of Grafton some of us will turn left and some to the right. PS Always look both ways twice before entering an intersection

Katie Shaughnessy

The next step you take on your own but remember you will not be alone. Good luck. We love you very much. Mum, Dad, Felix and Lukas

Kari Whitney

Kari, it seems like just yesterday that you were a baby, but you have grown into a beautiful "Diva". You have always had the ability to make us laugh in good times and in bad. To quote Mom's favorite singer, may sunshine and happiness surround you when you are far from home. Because in our hearts you will always remain forever young. Love Mom, Dad and Megan

Alana White

Our free spirit! With your unique sense of humor, animation and countless facial expressions you have brought joy and laughter into our hearts and our home. ## Laura Worrick

From your first wail, the nurse in the next room thought there were two of you. You have brought us more joy than we could have imagined. Through your 'out of the box' thinking we see the world anew. Go after your dreams with the passion you have always possessed.
